Your application has been sent to the Police Authority.

If you have provided an email address, you will also receive a confirmation email. One copy of the police report (claiming copy) will be sent via regular mail to the owner or owners you have stated. The information you provided will be processed according to the provisions of the Personal Data Act (1998: 204).

- If you need to add information to your application, you can do so on the website where you did your report notification. Then choose "Supplement" instead and enter your registration number that you get in this receipt.
- If you need to talk to the police about your registration, you should call telephone number 114 14. Have your registration number at hand.
- As a crime victim you have the opportunity to get support and help in different forms depending on the type of crime you have become exposed to. Read more about this on the website of the police authority to which your application was sent.
- Remember that you should contact your insurance company when you have been robbed or lost something
